School for all

The plantation in India runs the largest school in the district. The school currently has approximately 1,300 students from preschool through elementary school to high school. Children of both factory workers and managers study under the same roof with the same conditions. For students who live far away, accommodation is available during the week and for those without family there is an orphanage.

Environmentally certified and recyclable packaging

We promote organic and ethical cultivation and invest heavily in climate-smart, recyclable packaging. In this way, efficient use of natural resources is promoted.

Better work tools

We have bought 350 lightweight baskets for the tea pluckers on the plantation in the Blue Mountains, India. We have replaced the heavy and unwieldy tea plucking baskets with lightweight baskets made of net with a high 'collar' to easily throw the tea leaves over the shoulder.

The traditional bamboo baskets weigh 4000 g and the new light basket 400 g.

FOLLIS CLASSIC

Follis Classic is a classic double certified tea at a very competitive price.

Both organic and Fairtrade-certified in eight classical flavours that suit most tea drinkers.

It is a mix of black and green teas, flavoured, unflavoured and caffeine-free Rooibos.

The teas are enveloped, which both protects the tea, (tea is destroyed by light, easily absorbs other fragrances and attracts moisture) and keeps the serving fresh and hygienic.
